The Method to the Madness: Six teams, the Dominican Campus, shovels, flashlights, and other necessary clue finding materials. All of the clues are identical only the order in which they have been hidden differ. Each Trivial Pursuing clue leads to another just as challenging, until the lucky team discovers the PIVOTAL DEL ORO (a.k.a. KEY OF GOLD)! The discoverers of this treasure will then receive their cash reward of $150.00.

The Reading of Uncle Joey's Estate will take place in the chapel located in the Dominican College Residence Center, Wednesday March 29. The Reading will be conducted by the Honorable Eddie Martinez.

Uncle Joey was survived by his six nieces and nephews — Nicole Keck, Kevin James Shelley, Jennifer Walford, Robert Andrews, and Robert Zampella. The surviving relatives accompanied by their friends and loved ones will gather to honor Joey's memory at the Residence Center Chapel at 6pm.

The Yellow Team searches for the most photographed person at the Leadership Awards. Can you guess who that was?
Answer: Eddie Martinez.

Talk about Electronic Mail! Rob Zampella discovers a clue.

Now it's time to say good bye to all our company . . .

Wrong way buddy!

It's not over YET!

'Twas the Night

It was a Wonderful Time with the Big Band music to capture the moment.

Ho! Ho! Ho! Santa (Corey) Fleetwood spreading Holiday Cheer!

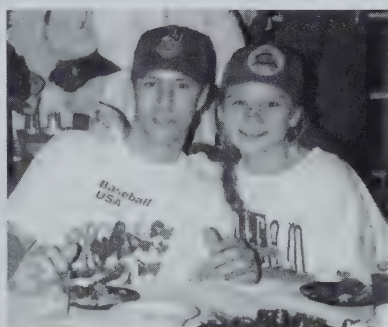

Kev S. and Kev B. all snuggled in their chairs, while visions of guitars and mosh pits danced in their heads.

Before Christmas

Seasons Greetings

The height of the evening was the performance of DC's very own Boys II Men. These shy and cool gents — Shannon Walker, Davonne Buckson, Steve DeGout, and Quincy Huntley, Wooed and Wowed the Ladies all night.

"You better not pout, you better not cry . . ." Santa is in the dorm. And what would you want for Christmas? A picture with Santa of course.

Aubade would like to wish Residence Director Kathy Lampeter farewell. Many thanks and wishes to you throughout your life. Your joy and creativity touched many and will be greatly missed.

Nursing Pinning Ceremony

Being A Nurse Means . . .
 You will never be bored.
 You will always be frustrated.
 You will be surrounded by challenges. So much to do and so little time.
 You will carry immense responsibility and very little authority. You will step into people's lives . . . and
 and you will make a difference.
 Some will bless you.
 Some will curse you.
 You will see people at their worst — and at their best. You will never cease to be amazed
 at people's capacity for love,
 courage, and endurance.
 You will see life begin
 — and end.
 You will experience
 resounding triumphs and
 devastating failures.
 You will cry a lot . . .
 You will laugh a lot . . .
 You will know what it is to be human . . . and to be humane.

Your college years have come to an end. How PROUD you must feel that you accomplished your goal in 4 years, but not prouder than we are that YOU have steadily improved over the years and focused your energy on the difficult task. Now its time to reap the REWARDS of all your hard work. We all LOVE you and wish you a lifetime of SUCCESS and HAPPINESS!

Dear Melissa,

More and more as years go by we count our richest treasures — FAMILY AND FRIENDS. On special occasions it gives us a chance to say some things that we often think but don't say.

Melissa, WE LOVE YOU, you make us very proud. You are a very special person, you make us very happy, and have given us such fond memories.

Your special thoughts and caring ways, make you loved by all who know you. Your thoughtfulness and warmth comes through in your smile and helpfulness to others.

Life's riches are many, but few give us the JOY we find in you.

May everything you ever dreamed come true!
Congratulations
Love Mom & Dad

Dear Lisa,

Today is one of those days when parents are filled with great pride. We are so very proud of you for accomplishing your personal goal of becoming the first in our family to graduate college. What really makes this day "extra special" is that "MOM" is graduating along side of you. Together we stand proud of each other. Remember, anything is possible if you work to make it happen. As you go forward in your life always remember your in God's hands.

Congratulations, We Love You!

Mom & Dad

Dear Mom and Pop

I want to take this opportunity to let you both know how much you mean to me. You have raised me since I was a baby. You have always been there to shower me with love, support, guidance, and encouragement. We have had good times as well as bad. The wonderful memories will remain in my heart for a lifetime. If it were not for you I would not be the person I am today. I'm extremely grateful and want to say "Thank You" for all you have done. I Love You both more than words can ever say.

Love Always — Karri

Todd, It's so hard to believe that the little boy who came home from his first day at Kindergarten and defiantly announced that he "hated school and was never going back!", has achieved so much success scholastically, personally, and in business. You have made us so very proud to be your parents. We love you and wish you a lifetime of happiness.

To My Family,

I am finally graduating and I have to say I could not have done it without all of your support and confidence. Ever since I was a little girl you told me I could achieve whatever I set my mind to. You have helped me build my self-esteem and good nature, which has lead me to the woman I am today.

Our family has made many fond memories which I hold dear to my heart. We have also had to get passed some obstacles that have made us realize how important we are to one another. The combination of good and bad times that have brought us closer and stronger as a family.

Mom, Dad, and Brian I love you with all my heart and Thank You for all your support, inspiration, caring, and especially your love.

Love Always — Melissa.

Jennifer Gormley

Congratulations on your degree. Work hard to reach your goals and never look back. Believe in dreams, they're your personal treasures. Believe in yourself, for you are a beautiful person. Only you can accomplish what set your mind to.

Love Mom, Dad, and Kara

Dear Audra,

Congratulations on your graduation from Dominican College. It was really nice how you shared the good times, goals, and thoughts with Melissa, as you both went for your degrees. May those memories last forever. We wish you much love and success.

Love Uncle Joe & Aunt Betty

To Melissa,

Well you did it. May this degree help you achieve all your goals in life. I watched how hard you worked to get where you are. You have always been dedicated and strong hearted in whatever it is you set your mind to. Actions speak louder than words, even though I don't say much I hope my actions have showed how much I love and care about you. I am very proud that you are my sister. I don't want to take too much time with this letter because you have many others from those whose lives you have also touched. Congratulations and Good Luck!

Love Always — Brian

P.S. I know I can always count on you for advice; I will always be there for you.

The desk is cluttered with various items, including papers, a ruler, and other books. In the background, there are framed pictures or posters on the wall.

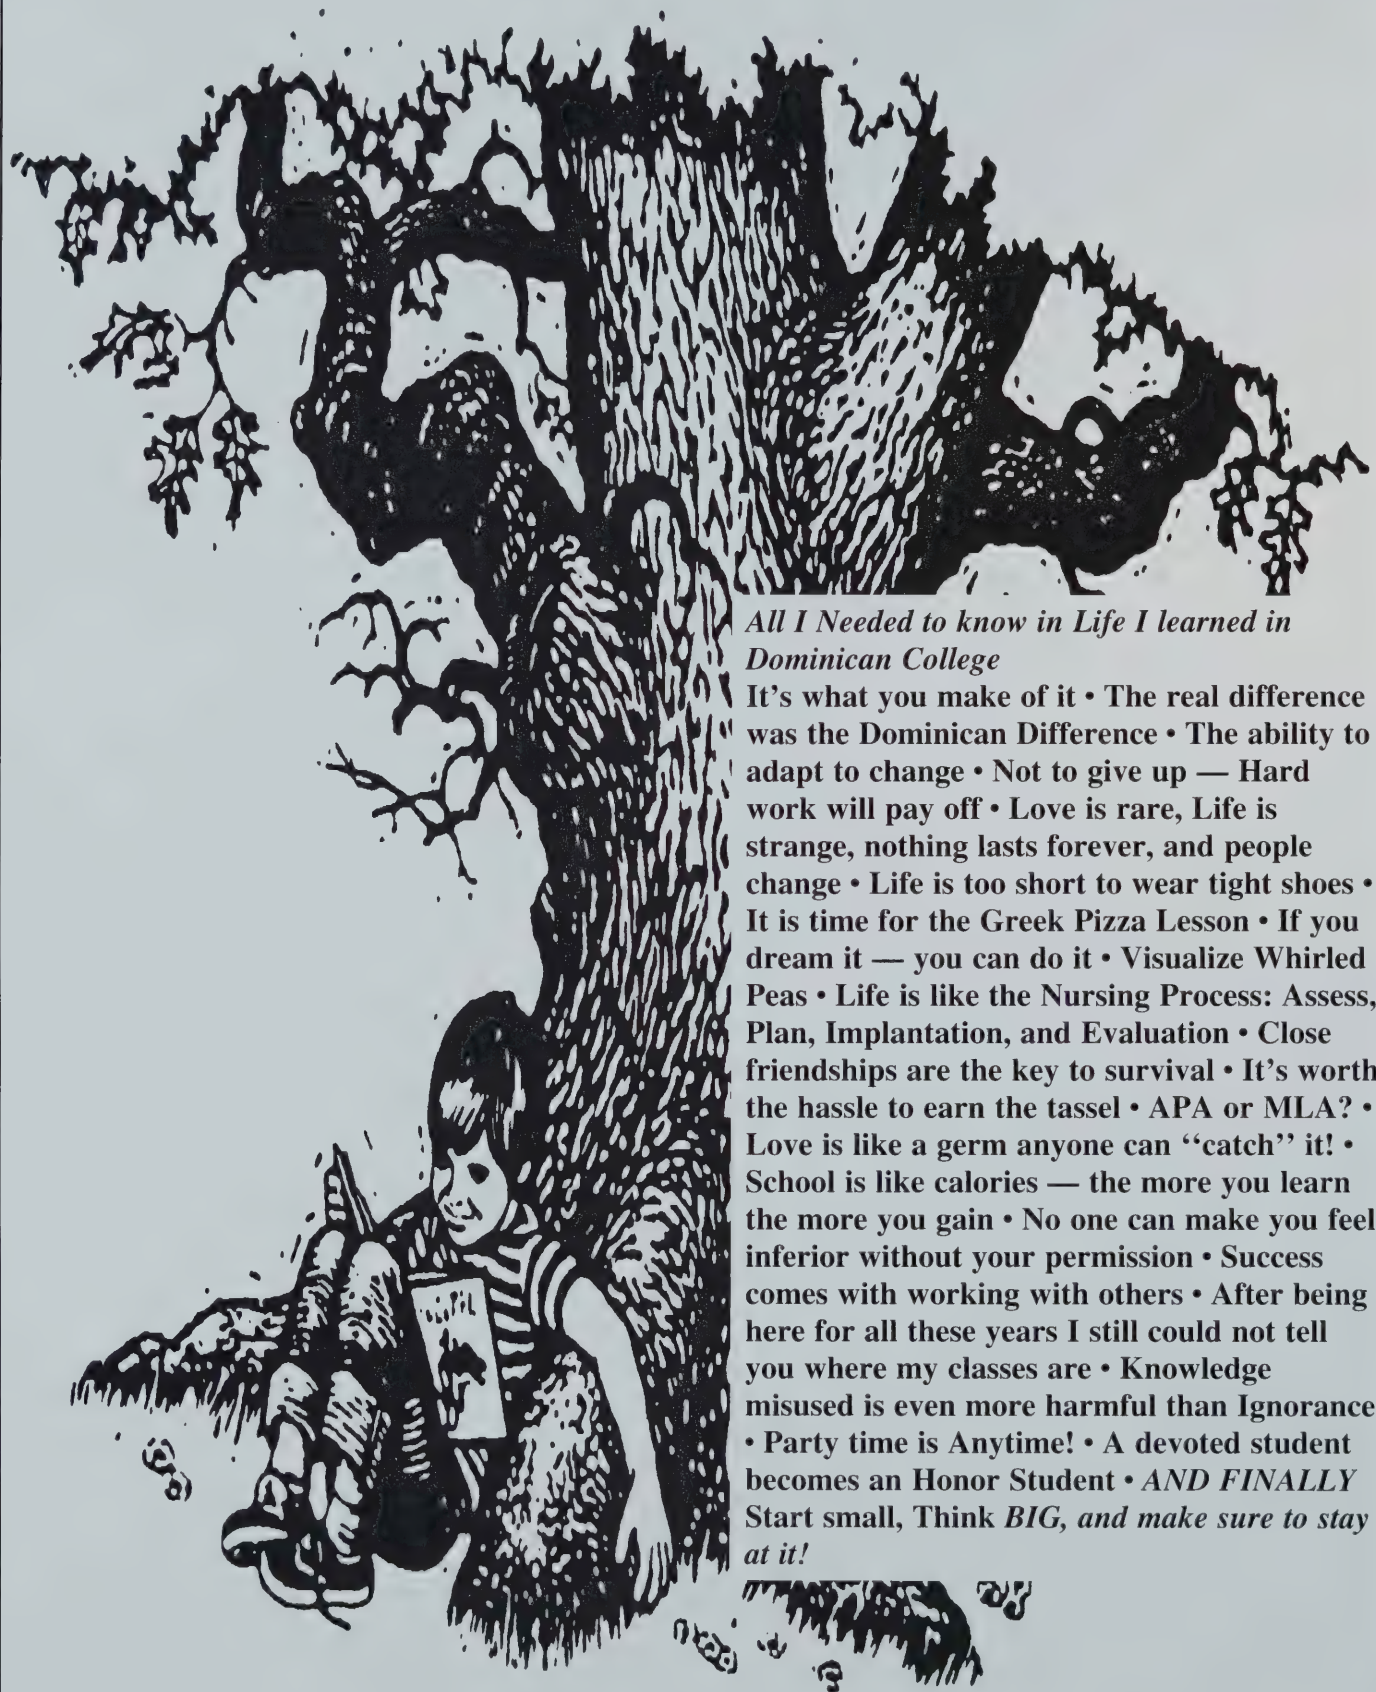

A black and white photograph of a cluttered desk. In the foreground, there is a typewriter with a sheet of paper in it. To the right of the typewriter are several calculators of different models. In the bottom right corner, there is a small, stylized cartoon character with large eyes and a simple body. The background is dark and indistinct.

All I Needed to know in Life I learned in Dominican College

It's what you make of it • The real difference was the Dominican Difference • The ability to adapt to change • Not to give up — Hard work will pay off • Love is rare, Life is strange, nothing lasts forever, and people change • Life is too short to wear tight shoes • It is time for the Greek Pizza Lesson • If you dream it — you can do it • Visualize Whirled Peas • Life is like the Nursing Process: Assess, Plan, Implantation, and Evaluation • Close friendships are the key to survival • It's worth the hassle to earn the tassel • APA or MLA? • Love is like a germ anyone can "catch" it! • School is like calories — the more you learn the more you gain • No one can make you feel inferior without your permission • Success comes with working with others • After being here for all these years I still could not tell you where my classes are • Knowledge misused is even more harmful than Ignorance • Party time is Anytime! • A devoted student becomes an Honor Student • AND FINALLY Start small, Think BIG, and make sure to stay at it!
